

Sta

Bullying is a breach of the student code of rights and responsibility

As a Catholic school in the tradition of Blessed Edmund Rice, every member of the College community has a right to feel protected, nurtured and valued. The College seeks to reinforce the values of care and consideration for others, to be respectful of each individual and to be a witness to these Christian

Bullying is a serious issue

Bullying is not 'OK'. Do not tolerate bullying it is too important not to report. A tradition of silence is a barrier to be broken down. As a student of St Pius X College it is not only your right, but your

Why bullying is not tolerated at St Pius X College

As a caring Christian community, the College:

- expects a high standard of behaviour at all times
- is committed to striving to provide a safe and caring environment for everyone where the
- encourages and positively reinforces behaviour which is courteous and considerate
- has a policy for detecting, preventing and dealing with bullying
- educates the students about issues related to bullying behaviour
- offers support to all students through our wellbeing system and the pastoral care role of all those involved, including bystanders.

- bullying refers to bullying through the use of information and communication
- Bullying can happen anywhere: at school, travelling to and from school, in sporting teams, or verbal, physical, name calling, teasing, abuse, putdowns, sarcasm, insults, threats physical, name calling, teasing, abuse, putdowns, sarcasm, insults, threats

-

at empts to deal with bullying do not seem to be

If a student reports bullying:

-

- The Human Resources Manager will talk to the individual about their options and the process